Sunday 1st November

Family/Children's Service

9.45 am

'Stock a box'

We shall be preparing small gifts in 'shoe boxes' to be distributed by:
 The British Legion to serving soldiers in Afghanistan and by
 Samaritans Purse to children in need in various countries of the world.
Lists of suitable items will be available during the month before.

Evening Service

for 'All Souls'

6.30 pm

We hold this Service each year at this time to remember those who have passed on and for whom we would like make particular remembrance. All those for whom the Vicar has conducted funerals in Colden Common in the last year will be remembered by name in the prayers and we would be pleased also to include any other persons you would like remembered, irrespective of how long ago they passed on.

A half hour Service especially for children
The Service is followed by refreshments

Sunday 13th December 2009

2.30 pm for 3 pm start

Floodlit nativity tableau and carol singing afternoon for all the family.

Come and join us in the churchyard to sing favourite Christmas carols and hear the Christmas story unfold as the nativity scene takes shape, with life-size scarecrow characters made by local village organisations.

Entrance free

Hot beverages available from 2.30 pm.

Draw

Profit will be donated to NSPCC and church funds

The Mayor of Winchester, Cllr Dominic Hiscock, will be in attendance and read the opening lines of the Christmas story.
